Title:

Demo for the hearing of the Federal Participation Act

Description (EN):

On November 7, 2016, the Federal Participation Act (BTHG) was discussed in the Bundestag in the Committee for Labor and Social Affairs. So-called experts were invited and heard. Self-advocacy organizations were not invited. Only Nancy Poser, as a self-concerned person, could give a statement by an invitation of the left parliamentary group. Against this grievance and the problems in the BTHG, a broad alliance of activists protested in front of the Brandenburg Gate. The motto was: "We are the experts. No party; No home operator; No social welfare office; No caregivers - just us!" #NichtMeinGesetz ++ on 07.11.2016 in Berlin (Berlin).
