About the Museum Sunday

Berlin's museums are here for everyone. Admission is free on the first Sunday of every month. Museum Sunday is an initiative by the State of Berlin in cooperation with the Federal Government Commissioner for Culture and the Media and takes place in collaboration with Kulturprojekte Berlin. Museum Sunday is an opportunity for Berlin's museums to get even more people interested in the city's diverse cultural offerings. Everyone is warmly invited to embark on a voyage of discovery with their friends and families. All are welcome.
